The Local Government Advisory Committee is pleased to host this FREE tour
Delmarva has a distinctive rural character with deep agricultural roots and strong ties to the water.

It's a place where local governments have more in common with their neighbors across state lines than with communities across the Chesapeake Bay.

- Join local elected officials from across the peninsula
- Meet poultry farmers and leading conservationists
- See the damage of flooding and saltwater intrusion
- Collaborate to support a strong agricultural economy and healthy environment

April 4th - 5th 2024
