

Maintain Healthy Watersheds GIT 2022 Workplan (V. 1 2/14/2022) – see logic and action plan for more detail and to reference specific actions	DRAFT (Subject to revision based on input, emerging needs and project timelines)
Meeting	Potential Topics
February 14, 2022 Tracking Healthy Watersheds MA #1 Continue Gathering and Refining SIHW Action 1.1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• PA Legacy Sediment Project – David Goerman and Jeff Hartranft</li> <li>• GIT Funding update</li> <li>• HWGIT 2022 Meeting outline development</li> <li>• Jurisdictional updates</li> <li>• 2017 baseline data set discussion</li> <li>• Science needs conversation</li> </ul>
March staff workplan	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• STAC rising temperature workshop support and facilitation</li> <li>• Meet with Jurisdictions to refine SIHW definitions and baseline maps</li> <li>• Initial meetings with NRCS to investigate source water protection opportunities in healthy watersheds</li> </ul>
April 11, 2022 Local Leadership – Strengthen local commitment and Capacity MA #2; Actions 2.1, 2.2 Land Use Landowner and Community Engagement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• LUMM indicator update, review, and approval</li> <li>• Planning for Clean Water Collaboration (Laura Cattell Noll)</li> </ul>
May Staff workplan and Webinar	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Finalize CB Protected Lands dataset</li> <li>• Webinar - MD Healthy Watershed Assessment, Nancy Roth Tetra Tech</li> </ul>
June 13, 2022 Federal Funding opportunities: Federal and State Leadership MA #3; Actions 2.3, 3.1 Land conservation, source water protection in vulnerable healthy watersheds: opportunities and examples (Action 1.3)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Utilizing Healthy Watershed assessments to inform state and federal programs e.g., with state NPS program plan and new Green Infrastructure Assessment;(MDE and DNR); NRCS and source water protection opportunities.</li> <li>• 2022 Chesapeake Bay Protected Lands Indicator Update</li> </ul>

August 8, 2022
October 11, 2022
December 12, 2022	