

Heidi Bonnaffon, Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments

In her thirteen years as Environmental Planner for the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments (COG's), Ms. Bonnaffon has focused on water resources policy while staffing the Chesapeake Bay & Water Resources Policy Committee; Potomac water quality; stormwater program implementation (next generation permits, best management practices, and procurement); and managing COG's Community Engagement Campaign for utility outreach.

COG's membership includes the District of Columbia and 24 surrounding cities and counties in Maryland and Virginia.

When not focused on water issues, she enjoys time spent with family and outside. She holds a B.S. in Zoology and a M.S. in Conservation Biology and Sustainable Development, from University of Wisconsin-Madison.
