

CBF bio

Lee R. Epstein- Director, Lands Program, Chesapeake Bay Foundation (CBF). Working at CBF since 1992, Lee is responsible for developing policy, advocacy, and public education, and undertaking research activities, in support of CBF's land use and land conservation advocacy, stormwater management, and broader environmental agenda. Prior to joining CBF, Lee created and managed the environmental practice as a partner in the law firm of Linowes & Blocher, Bethesda, Maryland; served as an Assistant Attorney General in the Maryland Department of Natural Resources; worked as an environmental planner and policy chief for Fairfax County, Virginia; and served as a planner and lawyer with the National Association of Counties in Washington, D.C. He holds a Bachelor's degree from Dickinson College, and both a Masters in Urban and Regional Planning and a law degree from the George Washington University. Lee has served on the Board of the Greater Washington Sustainable Growth Alliance and the Chesapeake Bay String of Pearls Project. He has spoken and published widely.