| 10:00 AM | Welcome and Introductions | Spano |
| 10:10 AM | Report from WQGIT October 22nd-23rd face-to-face | Spano/Zhou |
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The WQGIT met October 22nd-23rd to discuss the 2017 midpoint assessment schedule and priorities. Tanya and Ning will summarize the highlights and outcomes from the meeting, and explain the WWTWG's role going forward.• Action requested: The WWTWG needs to develop a workplan by February 2013 for its midpoint assessment priorities:<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Improve data for non-significant facilities, especially industrials2. Standardize methods to account for net loads from industrial facilities3. Evaluate how biosolids land applied and accounted for4. Determine how to incorporate local septic data5. Develop methods for identifying/quantifying loads from commercial and residential onsite systems6. Agree on methods to account for reduced septic loads The workgroup must decide whether to move forward on the above priorities, considering if the items would interfere with the workgroup's or key staff's ability to handle other key priorities or activities. If Workgroup decides to move forward with the above items, it must identify supporting partners and needs, and draft a work plan with schedule to present to WQGIT in February 2013. Activities and effort under the workplan would occur between 2013 and September 2016, based on broader schedule TBD by the PSC. | |
